ESSAYS FLOOD HERALD OFFICE

"Better Baby" Compositions Keep Contest Editor Busy All Day Long.

NOT TOO LATE TO ENTER

Every Public School Girl Should Enter Interesting Race for Attractive Prizes.

The essays that have poured into The Herald office in the "better baby" contest in the past few days indicate that hundreds of public school girls took advantage of the Easter holidays, which end tomorrow, to try for one of the beautiful prizes which The Herald is offering for the best essays.

For the benefit of girls who read about the contest this morning for the first time, the "better baby" editor repeats, it is NOT too late to start. You have until Saturday evening, May 6, to get your essay into The Herald office.

All that is necessary is that you be a pupil of the public graded or high schools. The subject of the essay is "How to Care for Baby." Last week The Herald printed seven articles to aid the girls in writing their essays. But mother can tell you as much about the care of baby, and she will be glad to help you win a prize.

If your mind is not made up to write an essay, walk downtown and see the beautiful prizes in the window of Charles Schwartz & Son, 708 Seventh street northwest, and you will surely not hesitate longer. At any rate, it will cost you nothing to try. Just a two-cent stamp and a little effort.

The contest is to get the school girls of the city interested in the baby week campaign to be held here from May 6 to 15. The purpose of the campaign is to educate the mothers and "little mothers"—the young girls—on the care of the baby.

TEA AND LINEN SHOWER FOR SIBLEY HOSPITAL

A tea and linen shower for the benefit of Sibley Hospital was held in Room Memorial Hall yesterday afternoon, and was attended by a number not only of Methodists but of members of other denominations as well. For, although the hospital is supported by the several Methodist Episcopal churches of the District, it makes no distinction in the creed of its patients.

One of the principal features of the tea was the exhibit of linen contributed by various churches and arranged in the chapel of the hall, under charge of Mrs. Arthur F. Henderson, corresponding secretary of the Woman's Guild of the hospital.

In the tea room, which was under charge of Miss Gertrude Lutz, assisted by a number of the wives of Washington physicians, there was music all afternoon. Miss Mary H. France was in charge of the ushers.

Wanderlusters Plan Hike.
Washington Wanderlusters tomorrow will hike from Cabin John Bridge to Glen Echo. The start will be made at 2:30 o'clock with Frank Lawson and John Gambel leading the way. Dr. T. C. Stotler will act as guide on the hike to Harpers Ferry on May 7, in which about 150 persons are expected to participate. The start will be made from Union Station at 8 o'clock.

For Bradshaw and Marshall.
The Republicans of East Deanwood, in a mass meeting Thursday evening at Moses Hall, Forty-fourth and Lane streets southeast, expressed their preference for the Bradshaw-Marshall-Erly-Ring ticket for delegates and alternates to the Republican national convention.

GREAT SALE OF DRUMMOND WORSTEDS

Attracting Attention of Washington's Best Dressed Men.

The great sale of the famous English Drummond Worsted, now in progress at M. Stein & Co.'s tailoring establishment, Eighth and F streets, is certainly attracting the crowds. No similar event has ever created such a desire on the part of the public to secure a bargain in good clothes as has this sale. Of course, the reputation of the famous Drummond Worsted has spread all over the world and when Mr. Stein was fortunate enough to secure twenty-five bolts of these celebrated English worsteds, he decided to give his patrons a real treat by making them up into suits to order at $20. No one ever heard of buying a suit of Drummond Worsted before under $30 or $40—so you can imagine the eagerness with which the good dressers of Washington are taking advantage of Mr. Stein's generous offer.

The sale is limited, of course, to the twenty-five bolts of Drummond's. After they are sold there will be no further opportunity this season or at any time in the future to buy them at $20. The writer dropped in to see these goods and he can vouch for the fact that they are genuine Drummond's, for every piece is stamped with the familiar J. D. & S. Ld., which is the trademark of J. Drummond & Sons, Limited, of London.—Adv.

WARD PREDICTS INDUSTRIAL WAR

Mission Speaker Says Faith in Christian Ideals May Be Lost in Strife.

FACING GRAVE RESULTS

Meeting Started by Statement that Property Rights of Man Are Restricted by Christianity.

Harry F. Ward, of Boston, speaking before the National Missionary Congress in Memorial Continental Hall last night on the subject "Facing the Social Results of the War," gave a graphic picture of the suffering and waste caused by the European conflict. William J. Schieffelin, of New York, presided.

Among the most serious results predicted by Mr. Ward from the present war are the destruction of human compassion, the loss of faith in the triumph of Christian ideals, and the loss of the desire to do justice. He also predicted a great industrial war.

Mr. Ward emphasized the teaching of Jesus regarding the stewardship of property, power and ability, for the benefit of mankind, and urged that the church stand for the principles of brotherhood that would lead all to stand together for the development of property for the benefit of human life.

President E. M. Potest started the congress yesterday when he asserted that the true Christian had right to no property whatever except what is needed to maintain him in full efficiency. The assertion was made in defining the property right of Christians.

NEAR-FIGHT AT IRISH LECTURE

Lehane Called Renegade and Slanderer by One of His Audience.

Cornelius Lehane's lecture on the present Irish revolution, delivered in Old Masonic Temple last night, under auspices of the Socialist party of the District, nearly broke up in a fight when an Irish-American in the audience called Lehane a "renegade Irishman" and a "slanderer."

Every now and then the Irish leader would make a statement that angered the Irish-American, who would jump to his feet and give vent to his protest. Each time the audience of Socialists would drown the voice of the "Irish-American."

He called Lehane a pro-German and Lehane called him a pro-Briton. Later the "Irish-American" objected to Lehane's denunciation of John Redmond. Lehane called Redmond an enemy of the people of Ireland. The Irish-American said he is the best friend Ireland ever had.

The verbal arguments between the speaker and his auditor finally resulted in cries of "hush him out" from all sides. Julian Pierce, presiding, informed the Irish-American that if he did not cease his interruptions he would be asked to leave the hall.

Mumbling his protests, he thereupon left the hall.

RIFLE CHAMPIONSHIP COMPETITION TODAY

The championship of the District high schools in marksmanship will be decided today at the Winthrop (Md.) range. Nine companies will have teams entered in the shooting—Companies A, B, and C, of Central; F and G of Eastern; H of Western, and A, F and H of Technical.

Sergeant Jones, of Company A, McKinley High School, yesterday tied the score made by Sergeant Stokes, of Company B, at Central, when they both scored an aggregate of 189 points out of a possible 200. Private Houston, of Company E, Central, came second with 188 points.

In the magazine fire contest, Sergeant Lord, of Company C, at Central, stood highest, with 84 credits out of a possible 100. Four marksmen—Parker, of McKinley; Sherry, of Tech; Edmunds, of Central; and Taylor, of the postoffice team—were tied for second place, each having 78 points.

The day at the range was enjoyed by the 150 marksmen who competed, though the events of today will be perhaps the biggest of the spring shooting. Officers of the range will hold their monthly meeting on the boat going down.

Improves your skin while cleansing it

Almost any soap will clean the skin and hair. Many toilet soaps are pure enough to do so without injuring these delicate textures. But those who want a soap which not only cleanses but actually helps the complexion and hair are wise to choose Resinol Soap.

The soothing, healing properties of Resinol enable it to protect the skin and scalp from annoying eruptions, keep the complexion clear, and the hair rich and lustrous. This, soaps which are merely pure and cleansing cannot be expected to do.

When the skin is in bad condition, through neglect or an unwise use of cosmetics, spread on just a little Resinol Ointment for ten or fifteen minutes before using Resinol Soap. Resinol Soap and Ointment are sold by all druggists.

INDICTMENTS CONSOLIDATED.

Riggs Bank Officials Will Be Tried Together May 8.

On motion of District Attorney Laskey and with the consent of counsel for the defense, Justice Siddons, of the District Supreme Court, yesterday ordered a consolidation of the four indictments charging officials of the Riggs Bank with perjury. One indictment is against Charles C. Glover, William J. Flather, and Henry H. Flather collectively, and the other three charge each one individually with perjury.

District Attorney Laskey pointed out that the testimony would be practically the same in each case. The cases will be heard jointly on May 8.
